BOOKS with Chris Jull

Summer Reading

Let's hope for better weather. But whatever the weather, you can always read.

In more, or less alphabetical order, here are some suggestions:

- C.J. Box writes about adventures of a game warden. The most recent is Storm Watch.
- Lee Child tells the stories of a former military cop, exploring America. Trouble finds him! The most recent title is No plan B.
- Michael Connolly tells the stories of policeman Harry Bosch and how trouble always seems to find him! Lots of titles in the library.
- Stephen Hunter's characters are snipers, a father and son. The father is in the most recent Bullet Garden.
- T. Jefferson Parker tells crime stories with style. His most recent is The Rescue, a dog story with complications.
- John Sandford is known for Davenport and Flowers, two Minnesota investigators. His most recent Dark Angel features Davenport's adopted daughter.
